

Adirondack Mountains Excursion June 2018

Kick Off The Summer Right With Your Fellow Master Teachers!

When: June 25th-27th 2018

Where: High Peaks Adirondacks

What: Hiking in the Adirondacks with fellow Master Teachers. Learning about the structural geology of the area, history of the park, technology of the hiking gear, and foster classroom connections.

What to Expect: Three days of hiking, two nights at the John's Brook Lodge. The lodge will provide breakfast, a packable lunch, and dinner. The hike into the lodge is about 3.5 miles, and each day will be filled with hiking in High Peaks. Each hiker will be responsible for their own transportation to the Adirondacks, as well as preparing for daily hikes with appropriate clothes, water, and a small backpack.

Please Register at: <https://wnymasterteachers.wufoo.com/forms/m16y1b6f0fasvh4/>

Please contact Stan Skotnicki if you have any questions: sskotnicki@gmail.com

BUFFALO STATE
The State University of New York